

‘Deux femmes’

By:

Jasmine Farram – UCA Farnham

Ashlie Barrow – Leeds

About 'Deux femmes':

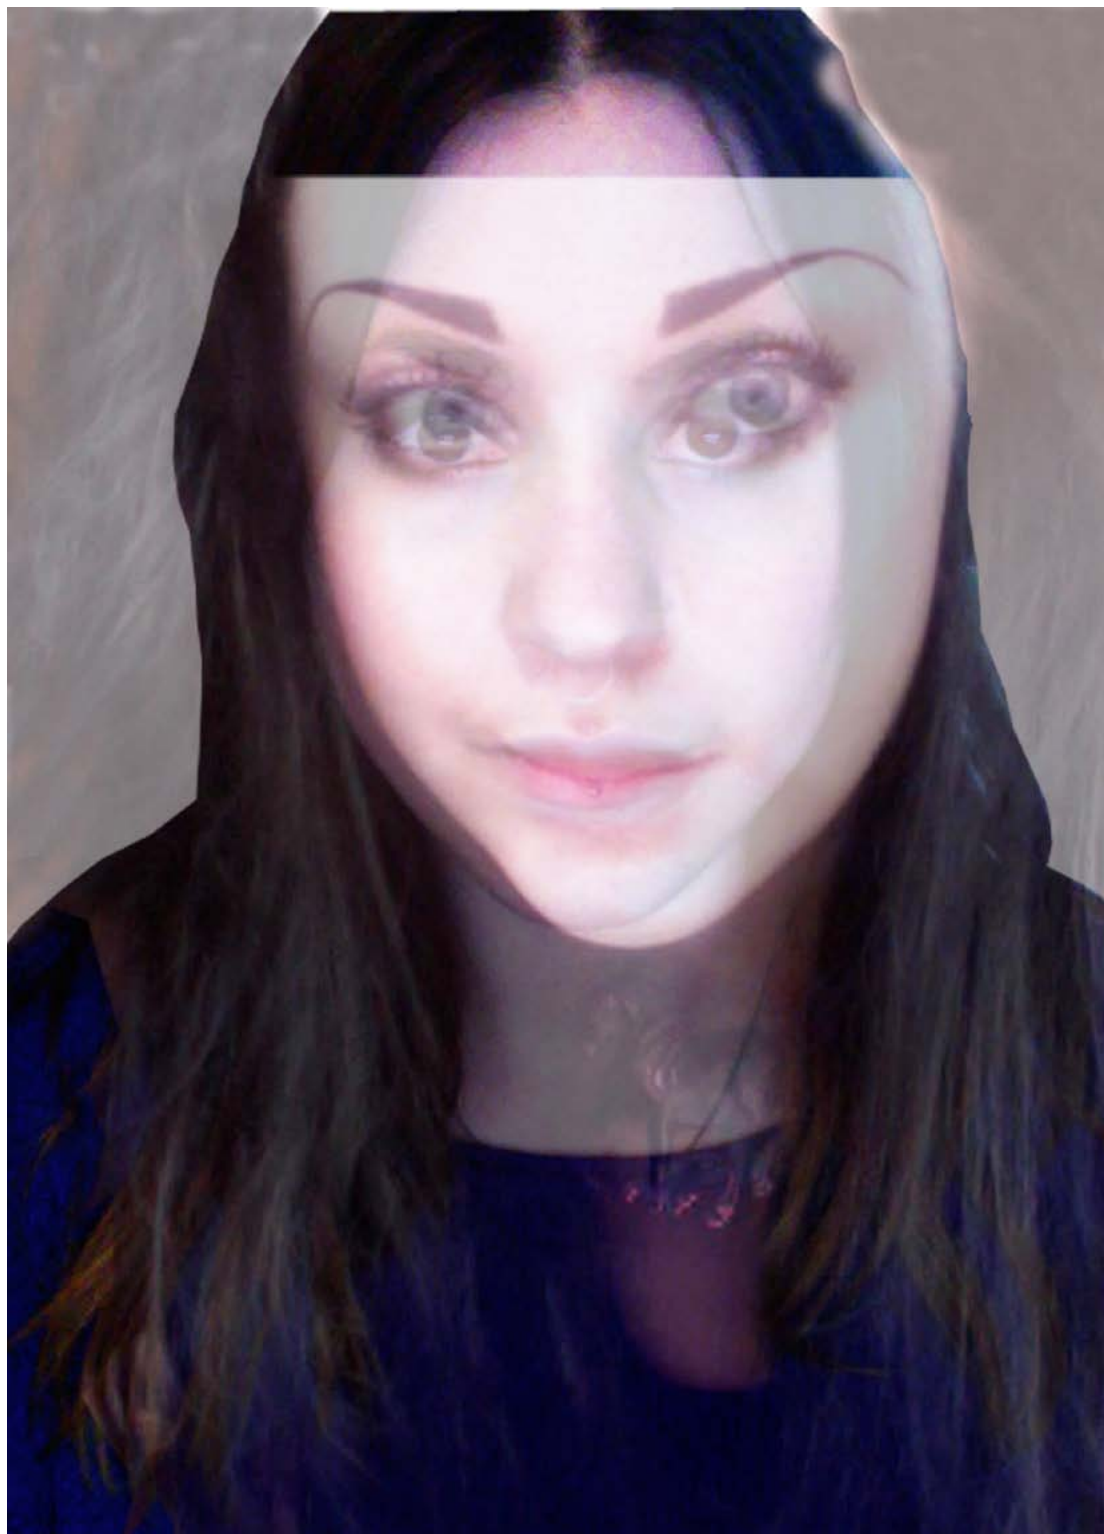

The work is an exploration of self-representation and the merging of two identities within a series of single self-portraits. Using photography and painting to portray two women within the same portrait, challenging identity and using the medium of choice for each individual artist in order for both to express their own identity.

Ashlie Barrow

Jasmine Farram

Self Portrait – Jasmine Farram

